BRITISH CRISIS MANAGEMENT

Who are we?

THOMPSON represents the world's leading insurance companies, specialising in Crisis Management. We arrange cover including Kidnap and Ransom, Illegal Detention, and Extortion. Insuring private individuals, as well as companies, against all forms of extortion. Protecting our clients' families and employees, as well as corporate and personal assets, against all illegal demands and the costs associated with such incidences.

THOMPSON also represents leading Security Companies and are able to organise training for individuals, families and corporate employees, in hostile environment survival and Crisis Management.

Who buys this class of Insurance?

Our clients are individuals and companies, that because of their high profile or financial success, can attract the unwanted attention of criminal groups and individuals, with intentions to harm them. We protect both private individuals and employees of multinational corporations, who operate in high risk regions of the world. Our clients' peace of mind, is our primary objective.

What do we insure against?

Crisis Management Insurance policies provide protection against:

- Kidnap
- Express Kidnap
- Unexplained Disappearance - after 48 hours
- Threats - made against persons or property, without demands
- Extortion - including threats to kill, harm, detain and/or damage to property unless a demand is met.
- Illegal Detention
- Highjacking of vehicle on land, sea and air.

Our experience

THOMPSON has over 10 years of experience in Crisis Management, working in the world's foremost insurance market, Lloyd's of London. We represent only the most experienced United Kingdom insurance companies. Our experienced knowledge and close relationships with the market leaders in Crisis Management Insurance, permit us to make quick and informed decisions, to ensure our clients have the best coverage, as quickly as they need it.

Most important of all, in the event of an insured incident occurring, THOMPSON representatives are trained in Crisis Management and how to handle delicate and difficult emergency situations.

Free security advice and risk prevention service

All THOMPSON clients have access to a free security and risk prevention service. Once a Crisis Management policy has been purchased through THOMPSON, our clients are given access to a highly qualified Risk Consultant, with over 25 years experience in Crisis Management. THOMPSON clients, also have access to detailed Crisis Management guides, to help them prepare and handle an incident, manage security and risk prevention.

THOMPSON is also able to arrange training services, for all our clients, with top security companies, to help prepare employees and families for crisis situations.

Incident Response

THOMPSON represents and has at our disposal, the services of the best international security consultants and Crisis Management response teams. All THOMPSON clients are guaranteed the exclusive services of these leading Risk Management companies, in the event of an insured incident. Services that would often be cost prohibitive to the uninsured, with no guarantee of availability when most needed.

THOMPSON representatives are themselves trained, in Crisis Management and claims handling, by the world's leading experts in this field. In the event of an insured incident, our clients can count on our immediate and experienced support, from the very moment an incident is reported.

Our clients also have an emergency contact number, operated 24 hours a day, 365 days a year by multilingual operators.

Confidentiality guaranteed

THOMPSON has direct access to underwriters in the United Kingdom. All our clients' confidential information is passed exclusively and directly to the underwriters. No information is passed around the Mexican Insurance market, as often is the case with domestic brokers and no information is retained by THOMPSON. Once a Crisis Management insurance policy has been purchased, our clients are assigned a unique code, which only the insurance company can match to a client's name and personal information.

Policy documentation can be issued to our clients by dedicated courier, password protected in an e-mail, delivered by a THOMPSON operative by hand or retained securely in the insurers' offices in the United Kingdom.

Quality and price guarantee

Due to the close relationships THOMPSON has built with the insurance market's leading Crisis Management Insurers, based in the United Kingdom, we can guarantee our clients receive the best products available, at the best possible prices.

All the Insurance companies represented by THOMPSON are regulated by the Financial Services Authority and have been awarded a financial strength rating of A (Excellent) from A.M. Best and A (Strong) from Fitch.
